

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

MOOLEYVILLE.

Mooleyville, as it is called, is not the largest in the world, although it is not generally speaking, but I am afraid it has attained its growth in size and population, and it is now a small town. It is situated in the center of the city, which would be a better place, had no correspondence to your valuable paper for some time. I will send you a few items for a hundred of its news.

Butter and eggs at moderate prices.

Corn and other crops are growing and looking well.

A widow should be married in a honest.

The strawberry crop in this locality and vicinity has been abundant, and was sell-

The Breckenridge News is a welcome visitor, and is anxiously looked for every Thursday. We hear many good words it is doing.

The first of July is almost here. Prepare to pay your accounts. "I don't like to have my husband chaw tobacco," remarked a lady the other day, "but I put up with it, for the sake of his health, for anything is doing up my fruit crops."

In choosing a wife, always select one that will wash.

There is one consoling thought in a late spring — it puts off the apple crop season as far as possible.

The only kind of cake children don't cry for is a cake of soap.

Afurther rainfall, which was so great in its extent, that it will greatly benefit the grass.

The last will be able to lay up in an unusually large store of honey this year, in consequence of the white cedar crop being the largest ever known. The bees were in this section, in some localities almost entirely crowding out several kinds of grass.

The interior and exterior of A. H. H. is put up for a short while, and Sunday, June 25th, we will have a great gathering to stay. Your visits are welcome every time.

Mr. George Egan has an excellent flouring mill, which he recently refi-ted, and is prepared to make the choicest of flour flour.

In connection with his flour mill, he and I prepared to saw lumber at reasonable rates.

was asked if he had any employed

Mr. George Egan, of the town, a renowned miller of much fame.

Among the young ladies that have been visiting friends and relatives a short time ago, was Mrs. Elizabeth Egan, Mrs. Eliza-thel and Madeline O'Brien. Come again young ladies, and let us have a few more of you, and we will have it in full, and let us have a good time.

That shall understand human nature quite well when he remarked, "When your judgments are empty, and everybody knows it, then you are free to do what you want to do, and it will not cost a cent."

Because houses are used to reign, it does not follow that they are unaffected by wet weather. No, gentlemen, by no means.

I understand that Mr. Edward Man-Morel, Mrs. Mary, is going to see up a case of some kind. I don't think it will be very serious. I hope Mr. Egan will be successful in his efforts.

That once he of who took his girl to church one night, and in the confusion after the service, when he was about to leave the church, he was going to Mandy

Craig single home, Sweet Home.

J. R. Mitchell is the busy business man of this town. He has a large stock of goods on hand, and a large quantity of chattels, who are numerous — Come

RAYMOND.

The crook looks fine. The wheat is thin on the ground, but the heads are the finest ever seen. The wheat is looking well. Can't be beat.

Old Sil is sending down his rays to the tune of bird in the shade.

What has become of Aunt "Savannah"?

14 she is, and has some widow care-cared her self.

Mrs. Ellen Nelson, of Atchison, Kansas, has just returned home from a three weeks visit to her brother and sister in this neighborhood.

Uncle Hilly was not to church yesterday, skipped it, but did not want there.

The United Brethren organized a church here on the 10th of last month. Elders Wil-
